1. OVERVIEW

The global economy presented a mix of stable, yet modest growth and persistent uncertainties across regions. Worldwide growth is expected to subdue at 3.2 percent in 2024, from 3.3 percent in the previous year (World Economic Outlook, October 2024). Moreover, global inflation trends are expected to ease to 5.8 percent in 2024, allowing some central banks to potentially shift to less restrictive monetary policies.

Advanced economies continue to face headwinds such as high public debt and tight monetary conditions – restraining government spending and dampening prospects for a stronger economic rebound. In emerging and developing economies, geopolitical tensions, climate challenges and economic disparities continue to shape economic performance, though there is cautious optimism around easing of inflation pressures in some regions.

The Guyanese registered economy favourable output performances during the third quarter of 2024, mainly led by the oil and gas subsector. The agriculture sector recorded growth in rice, fish & shrimp, livestock, other crops and forestry output, while sugar output contracted. The mining & quarrying sector registered output growth in crude oil, crushed stone and sand. However, there were contractions in the production of bauxite. diamond and gold. The manufacturing sector recorded higher production in malta, alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages, and putty & paints; while stockfeed, pharmaceutical ointments and liquids declined. The construction sector continued to experience growth following investment on infrastructural projects by the Central Government as well as private housing. The services sector recorded increased activities in transport & communication, entertainment & recreation, professional, scientific & technical services and accommodation & food services.

The Urban Consumer Price Index (CPI) recorded a year-to-date inflation of 2.4 percent at end-September 2024, primarily due to increases in prices of food, housing (fuel & power) and transport & communication.

The overall balance of payments recorded a lower deficit of US$135.2 million compared to a deficit of US$256.2 million for the same period last year. This outturn reflected a higher current account surplus which more than offset the larger capital account deficit. The current account outturn was primarily attributed to an increase in export receipts while the larger capital account deficit was due to outflows to the Natural Resource Fund (NRF) and cost recovery (withdrawal of equity) by the oil and gas sector.

Guyana's net international investment position (NIIP) was US$5,607.4 million at end-September 2024, an improvement of US$1,529.3 million or 21.4 percent from the end-June 2024 position.

The accumulated value of foreign exchange market transactions increased by 39.9 percent or US$4,506.9 million to US$15,790.2 million, mainly reflecting higher activities through foreign currency accounts by 97.6 percent (US$3,688.5 million). Bank and non-bank cambios and hard & soft currency turnovers were also higher, accounting for 52.7 percent of the market. Total foreign exchange sales were greater than purchases, resulting in net sales of US$114.0 million. The Bank's mid-rate, which is the reference rate for official transactions, was unchanged at G$208.50 during the third quarter of 2024.

The public sector's overall financial operations recorded a deficit of G$66,473 million, mainly due to Central Government overall fiscal deficit of G$70,827 million. The Non-Financial Public Enterprises (NFPEs) reported a surplus of G$4,354 million due to a higher current account surplus, offsetting the capital account deficit.

The total stock of public and publicly guaranteed debt increased by 18.0 percent or US$808.2 million to US$5,317 million from the end-December 2023 position reflecting the borrowings to finance the budget deficit. The stock of total domestic debt grew by 16.4 percent to US$3,181.6 million from US$2,733.4 million at end-December 2023, while the stock of external public debt increased by 20.3 percent to US$2,135.4 million.

The monetary aggregates of reserve money grew by 14.2 percent while broad money increased by 14.0 percent. The former reflected an increase in net domestic assets of the Bank of Guyana while the latter was on account of an expansion in net domestic credit to the banking system. Private sector credit grew by 14.2 percent at end-September 2024 compared with a growth of 11.4 percent for the corresponding period last year.

Commercial interest rates varied over the review period while the treasury bill rates were relatively stable.

The financial resources of the Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs), which include depository and non-depository financial institutions fell by 0.8 percent to G$478,540 million. Moreover, the sector's share of total assets in the financial sector declined from 33.7 percent at end-December 2023 to 30.8 percent at end-September 2024.

At the end of September 2024, the financial system remained relatively stable with Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) being adequately capitalised, highly liquid and profitable. The Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) continued to exceed the prudential 8 percent benchmark, while asset quality improved due to a reduction in the level of non-performing loans when compared with the third quarter of 2023.

The insurance sector, was adequately capitalized as both the life and non-life insurance sectors' assets exceeded their respective solvency requirements. Although the insurance sector is sound with manageable risks, there are potential systemic issues from concentration of assets, specifically the long-term sector's total assets.

Pension funds' vulnerability to market risk was moderate and stable. However Defined Contribution (DC) pension funds continued to be largely exposed to insurance companies having investments in deposit administration contracts.

The conduct of monetary policy continued to focus on the attainment of price stability while ensuring an adequate level of liquidity to provide for private sector credit and economic growth. The Bank seeks to allow the expansion of broad money along a path consistent with projections for output and inflation. Thus, weekly targets for broad money are translated into targets for base money using the money multiplier. To achieve these weekly base money targets, the Bank focuses on the effective management of excess liquidity in the financial system through its Open Market Operations (OMOs). The Bank also intervenes in the foreign exchange market to achieve its primary objective.

The Bank of Guyana continued to monitor the payment services that currently exist within the national system during the review period. The newly implemented systems, Guyana Real Time Gross Settlement (G-RTGS) and Guyana Central Securities Depository (G-CSD) systems were fully integrated with the previously existed Automated Clearing House (ACH) system. The ACH system comprised the Guyana Electronic Funds Transfer (G-EFT) and the Guyana Electronic Cheque Clearing (G-ECC) sub-systems which, together with the G-RTGS & G-CSD systems, have formulated a modern and unified payments system infrastructure for all Guyanese and in the process, meeting required international standards and demands.

2. REVIEW OF THE THIRD QUARTER OF 2024

PRODUCTION

The Guyanese economy registered favourable output performances during the third quarter of 2024. Growth continued to be influenced substantially by the oil and gas subsector. Growth of the non-oil sector stemmed from the agriculture, manufacturing, construction and services sectors.

In the agriculture sector, rice production increased by 4.8 percent to 527,043 metric tonnes, compared to one year earlier. The fishing subsector recorded a 2.5 percent growth in fish catches and 4.5 percent growth shrimp output. Sugar production contracted by 48.6 percent to 21,424 metric tonnes, and was mainly due to prolonged dry weather condition (El Nino), which adversely affected the growth of sugarcane plants. Livestock production recorded growth of 27.1 percent, which resulted mainly from increases in mutton, poultry meat and pork production by 39.2 percent, 28.3 percent and 27.0 percent, respectively. In the other crops subsector, total production increased by 10.7 percent. Beans and cereal production increased by 114.3 percent, vegetables production by 10.9 percent, root crops production by 10.0 percent, fruits production by 9.8 percent and coconut production by 4.5 percent. Forestry output expanded by 12.2 percent due to an increase in total logs production by 11.1 percent. Roundwood production increased by 46.2 percent while sawnwood production declined by 2.0 percent.

The mining and quarrying sector recorded higher output of crude oil, crushed stone and sand. Crude oil production recorded an increase of 61.4 percent to 165.5 million barrels from 102.5 million barrels at end-September 2023. This outcome was on account of favourable performance from the additional FPSO - Prosperity as well as consistent contributions from the Liza Destiny and Liza Unity FPSOs. Declaration of crushed stone increased by 66.3 percent to 2,216,899 tonnes while sand extraction increased by 54.8 percent to 8,678,741 tonnes. Bauxite, diamond and gold output contracted by 22.2 percent, 16.9 percent, and 2.2 percent, respectively. Lower bauxite production was due to a decline in Chemical Grade Bauxite (CGB) by 46.0 percent to 106,317 tonnes, Refractory Aggregate Super Calcined Grade Bauxite (RASC) by 14.8 percent to 128,378 tonnes, and Metallurgical Grade Bauxite (MAZ) by 70.8 percent to 8,845 tonnes. Lower diamond declarations of 40,432 carats was due to lower demand and reduced world market price, which caused many miners to migrate to the gold mining industry, subsequently creating a labour shortage. Declarations of gold declined by 2.2 percent to 313,163 troy ounces, mainly due to lower declarations from small and medium scale miners by 14.3 percent. The sole large scale operator, Zijin, recorded an increase in declarations by 34.4 percent, as underground mining operations remained favourable.

The manufacturing sector recorded increases in the production of malta, non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages by 19.1 percent, 11.4 percent and 0.1 percent respectively. Putty and paints recorded increases in production by 3.4 percent and 0.8 percent respectively. Further, flour production grew by 3.8 percent. In contrast, production of stockfeed declined by 5.4 percent, while pharmaceutical ointments and liquids declined by 23.0 percent and 2.0 percent, respectively.

Construction activities continued to accelerate in both public and private sectors, due to investments on infrastructural programmes by the Central Government, the expanding oil and gas subsector and private housing and hospitality services.

Performance in the services sector improved in areas of transport & communication, entertainment & recreation, professional, scientific & technical services and accommodation & food services.

INFLATION

The Urban Consumer Price Index (CPI) recorded an inflation of 2.4 percent at the end of the third quarter of 2024. This outcome was primarily on account of increases in prices of food by 4.6 percent, housing (fuel & power) by 0.2 percent and transport & communication by 0.2 percent. Moreover, price increases were recorded for education, recreation & cultural services by 3.3 percent, medical care & health services by 1.3 percent and miscellaneous goods & services by 1.1 percent. Contrarily, the price level decreased in the category of furniture by 0.8 percent.

BALANCE OF PAYMENTS

The overall balance of payments recorded a lower deficit of US$135.2 million compared to a deficit of US$256.2 million for the same period last year. This outturn reflected a higher current account surplus which more than offset the larger capital account deficit. The current account outturn was primarily attributed to an increase in export receipts while the larger capital account deficit was due to outflows to the Natural Resource Fund (NRF) and cost recovery (withdrawal of equity) by the oil and gas sector.

The current account surplus increased to US$4,657.4 million from US$930.3 million. This was mainly due to a larger merchandise trade surplus of US$9,772.4 compared to US$4,357.0 million last year. This higher surplus reflected a 57.2 percent or US$5,376.2 million growth in exports to US$14,772.9 million which stemmed from higher exports of crude oil by US$5,226.7 million to US$13,501.9 million, gold by US$87.4 million to US$683.7 million, 'other exports' by US$50.3 million to US$336.9 million and rice by US$24.7 million to US$170.0 million. Lower export receipts were recorded for sugar, timber and bauxite at US$7.8 million, US$13.8 million and US$58.9 million from US$17.1 million, US$15.4 million and US$61.0 million respectively.

Merchandise imports declined by 0.8 percent or US$39.2 million to US$5,000.5 million. This outturn resulted from lower imports of capital goods by US$608.1 million to US$2,154.2 million when compared to US$2,762.3 million for the same period in 2023. The importation of the third FPSO – Prosperity, valued US$1,763.1 million in April 2023 resulted in elevated imports during that period.

The non-oil current account recorded a lower deficit of US$1,936.6 million compared to US$1,269.5 million at end-September 2023. This expansion resulted from a non-oil merchandise trade deficit of US$2,252.4 million compared to US$1,780.0 million a year ago, reflecting primarily higher non-oil import costs valued US$3,522.3 million despite export receipts being higher by 13.3 percent.

The services account recorded a larger deficit of US$5,904.3 million, a deterioration of 38.3 percent or US$1,635.1 million from one year ago. This resulted from higher payments for non-factor service by US$936.7 million and factor services by US$698.4 million. Net payments for non-factor services increased to US$4,076.1 million mainly due to higher payments for construction and freight. Net payments for factor services were greater by 61.8 percent as a result of the repatriation of income on equity (oil profits) by the oil & gas sector. Net current transfers decreased by 6.3 percent or US$53.2 million to US$789.3 million, reflecting lower inflows to bank accounts.

The capital account registered a wider deficit of US$4,766.1 million from US$1,223.7 million at end-September 2023, on account of higher outflows of US$1,816.9 million in oil revenues to the Natural Resource Fund (NRF) and US$10,694.0 million in oil cost notwithstanding inflows recovery, US$6,538.3 million to the private sector in the form of foreign direct investments (FDIs). Loans disbursed to the non-financial public sector increased by US$284.3 million to US$406.9 million while short-term private capital net recorded a higher inflow of US$67.2 million from an outflow of US$83.0 million one year ago. This reflected commercial banks' reduction of foreign assets. Foreign direct investments inflow increased by 26.0 percent or US$1,349.9 million to US$6,538.3 million mainly due to the increased investments in the oil & gas sector.

The overall deficit was financed by a drawdown on the Bank of Guyana's foreign reserves which moved from US$892.9 million to US$757.7 million.

BALANCE OF PAYMENTS (BPM6 methodology)

Background

The Balance of Payments Manual 6th edition (BPM6) methodology and presentation are used simultaneously to compile the BOP. The IMF's BPM6 comprises of the Current Account, the Capital Account and the Financial Account. The Current Account includes net trade in goods (F.O.B.) and services, primary income (net earnings on cross border investments) as well as secondary income (net transfer payments). The Capital Account records capital transfer, debt forgiveness and the acquisition and/or disposal of non-produced, nonfinancial assets. The Financial Account records changes in Guyana's external assets and liabilities. These assets and liabilities include foreign direct investments, portfolio investments and other investments such as currency & deposits, loans and reserve assets. Net changes in assets or liabilities arise when gross increases in assets or liabilities differ from gross reductions in these and vice versa.

The current account recorded a surplus of US$5,328.4 million at end-September 2024, an increase of US$3,971.3 million when compared with the surplus of US$1,357.1 million for the same period last year. This increase was primarily due to a surplus on the goods account by 118.3 percent or US$5,659.7 million from US$4,783.8 million to US$10,443.5 million. This outturn reflected a US$5,376.2 million growth in exports to US$14,772.9 million. Higher export receipts were from crude oil with US$13,501.9 million, gold with US$683.7 million, 'other exports' with US$336.9 million and rice with US$170.0 million. Lower export receipts were recorded for sugar, timber and bauxite at US$7.8 million, US$13.8 million and US$58.9 million from US$17.1 million, US$15.4 million and US$61.0 million respectively. Merchandise imports (F.O.B.) decreased by US$283.5 million owing to lower capital goods which declined by US$767.2 million to US$1,817.6 million.

Intermediate and consumption goods increased by US$342.4 million and US$131.3 million respectively to US$1,841.4 million and US$653.8 million respectively. The importation of the third FPSO – Prosperity, valued US$1,763.1 million in April 2023 resulted in elevated imports during that period.

The services account recorded a higher deficit of US$4,075.8 million, a deterioration of 5.8 percent or US$224.2 million from one year ago. This resulted mainly from higher payments for construction and freight. The services credits reflected a 41.1 percent increase in tourist receipts to US$452.8 million. Visitor arrivals for January to September 2024 was 14.1 percent higher than the same period in 2023. The Primary Income account recorded a higher net payment of US$1,828.2 million largely reflecting the repatriation of income on equity (oil profits) by the oil & gas sector. The Secondary Income account recorded a lower surplus of US$789.0 million compared to US$851.9 million last year reflecting a decline in 'other current transfers'.

The capital account registered a declined surplus of US$6.7 million from US$7.6 million at end-September 2023, on account of lower receipt of capital transfers. The Financial Account reflected a higher net lending position of US$4,516.3 million from end-September 2023, primarily due to the cost recovery (withdrawals of equity) of the oil and gas sector. Foreign Direct Investment inflows amounted to US$6,538.3 million largely related to investments in the oil and gas sector. Portfolio Investments reflected a net outflow of US$60.7 million mainly on account of an increase in the acquisition of assets abroad by Deposit Taking Institutions. Net Other Investment inflows amounted to US$552.3 million for the review period, an increase of US$149.0 million relative to end-September 2023 position. This was the result of an increase in deposits held abroad by Government (NRF).

Reserve Assets of the Bank of Guyana recorded a drawdown of US$135.2 million.

NET INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT POSITION (NIIP)

Guyana's net international investment position (NIIP) was estimated at US$5,607.4 million at end-September 2024. This represented an improvement of US$1,529.3 million or 21.6 percent from the end-June 2024 position, resulting from a decline of US$1,180.2 million in the stock of liabilities together with an increase of US$349.1 million in the stock of assets. Assets increased by 6.7 percent to US$5,531.3 million resulting from increases in other investments (currency & deposits due to the Natural Resource Fund (NRF)) and debt securities by US$283.3 million and US$26.9 million respectively. Liabilities declined by US$1,180.2 million to US$11,138.7 million owing to oil cost recovery (withdrawal of equity) by the oil and gas sector.

On the other hand, the value of foreign exchange activities at the non-bank cambios declined by 6.8 percent to US$51.1 million compared with US$54.8 million and accounted for a miniscule 0.9 percent of the market.

Hard currency purchases and sales by the Bank of Guyana were US$1,152.7 million and US$1,279.3 million, respectively, compared with US$1,054.8 million and US$1,161.4 million, for the same period in 2023. The increase in purchases were mainly through the Natural Resource Fund, non-bank purchases (primarily the Guyana Gold Board and the Guyana Revenue Authority) as well as through 'other' receipts. The increase in sales resulted mainly from oil payments and other goods & services for major projects. Fuel imports represented the largest category of payments, amounting to 44.4 percent. The Bank's foreign exchange intervention resulted in a net sale of US$212.8 million for the period January – September 2024, while interbank trade amounted to US$2.3 million at end-September 2024 when compared with US$44.9 million for the same period last year.

The debits and credits of authorized foreign currency accounts at commercial banks were US$3,740.2 million and US$3,727.0 million, respectively. This resulted in net debit of US$13.2 million on these accounts. The corresponding period last year recorded debits and credits of these accounts at US$1,869.0 million and US$1,909.6 million, respectively.

The aggregated value of transfers by money transfer agencies amounted to US$269.6 million, 3.0 percent lower than the previous year. CARICOM currency transactions increased by 18.7 percent to US$14.6 million from US$12.3 million at end-September 2023. The market share of the Trinidad & Tobago dollar was 94.5 percent, followed by the Barbadian dollar with 3.7 percent and the EC dollar with 1.8 percent of the aggregate turnover.

The Bank's mid-rate, which is the reference rate for official transactions, was unchanged at G$208.50 during the third quarter of 2024. On the other hand, the weighted rate depreciated by 2.2 percent to G$215.89 from G$211.29 at the end of September 2023.

At the bank cambios, the average buying rate of the US dollar appreciated to G$213.84 from G$213.87 while the selling rate depreciated to G$215.74 from G$215.66 in the corresponding period last year. The average buying and selling rates of the US dollar at non-bank cambios as at September 2024 depreciated to G$214.92 from G$208.61 and to G$218.16 from G$210.56 respectively from the corresponding period last year.

The difference between the banks' and non-banks' buying rates declined to G$1.08 from G$5.26 at end-September 2023. The difference in the selling rates of the bank and non-bank cambios was G$2.42 compared with G$5.10 for the corresponding month in 2023. Moreover, the banks' spread was lower at G$1.90 compared with the non-banks' spread at G$3.24. The total market spread increased to G$2.70 compared with G$2.05 at the end of September 2023.

PUBLIC FINANCE

The public sector's overall financial operations recorded a deficit of G$66,473 million, mainly due to Central Government overall fiscal deficit of G$70,827 million. The Non-Financial Public Enterprises (NFPEs) reported a surplus of G$4,354 million due to a higher current account surplus, offsetting the capital account deficit.

Central Government

The Central Government deficit of G$70,827 million at end-September 2024, was higher than the deficit of G$20,385 million one year ago. This increase was primarily due to the capital account deficit, which grew by G$80,950 million to G$267,528 million owing to budgeted infrastructure sending. The current account surplus increased by G$30,508 million to G$196,701 million. This outturn was due to an increase in current revenues by 24.3 percent to G$513,093 million, with inflows from the Natural Resource Fund (NRF) accounting for G$176,782 million or 34.5 percent of current revenue.

Total current revenues (excluding NRF, GRIF & CC inflows) increased by 16.5 percent to G$327,638 million, due to increases in income taxes by 20.1 percent to G$184,834 million, VAT & Excise taxes by 10.7 percent to G$84,488 million, trade taxes by 12.9 percent to G$27,809 million and other tax revenues by 19.9 percent to G$15,939 million. Non-tax revenue grew by 11.4 percent to G$14,568 million. Total current expenditure (including interest charges) increased by 28.3 percent to G$316,391 million and represented 54.1 percent of aggregate expenditure. The outturn was due to higher transfer payments by 42.0 percent to G$145,430 million, employment costs by 19.4 percent to G$81,801 million and purchases of other goods & services by 15.0 percent to G$77,614 million. The capital account budget deficit increased by 43.4 percent to G$267,528 million due to a 42.9 percent rise in capital expenditures largely for infrastructure, totalling G$268,953 million or 45.9 percent of aggregate expenditure. Disbursements for the construction sector, power generation, housing sector, health and education sectors amounted to G$66,736 million, G$62,577 million, G$50,117 million, G$21,613 million and G$10,938 million respectively, which altogether represented 78.8 percent of total capital spending for end-September 2024. Capital revenues amounted to G$1,425 million.

The Central Government's fiscal deficit of G$70,827 million was financed by net external borrowings of G$51,906 million, while domestic borrowings were G$18,921 million.

Non-Financial Public Enterprises

Non-Financial Public Enterprises (NFPEs) recorded a surplus of G$4,354 million, relative to a deficit of G$495 million for the corresponding period last year. This positive outcome was mainly due to a wider surplus of G$7,460 million in the current account, offsetting the capital account deficit of G$3,106 million.

Current receipts grew by 21.9 percent to million, compared G$141,586 with G$116,187 million last year. # Asset Quality

LDFIs' non-performing loans (NPLs) as a share of total loans were 2.3 percent at end-September 2024, 1 percentage point below end-September 2023. The decrease resulted from an 18.7 percent decline in NPLs combined with a 16.8 percent increase in total loans. The higher total loans resulted from all LDFIs' loan portfolios expanding, while six of the eight LDFIs' reflected lower NPLs. The ratio of provision for loan losses to NPLs increased to 77.9 percent at end-September 2024, up from 65.3 percent at the end of September 2023.

As at September 30, 2024, NPLs in the business enterprises sector accounted for 44.3 percent of the LDFIs' aggregate NPLs, down from the 49.8 percent recorded at end-September 2023. Within this sector, NPLs were further concentrated in the

INSURANCE REVIEW

The insurance sector, which accounted for 6.8 percent of total financial sector assets and 32.0 percent of non-bank assets as at end-September 2024, was adequately capitalized as both the life and non-life insurance sectors' assets exceeded their respective solvency requirements.

Although the insurance sector is sound with manageable risks, there are potential systemic issues from concentration of assets, specifically the long-term sector's total assets, which accounted for 65.3 percent (G$100.7 billion) of the industry's G$154.2 billion total assets.

For the life insurance sector, the capital moved on a slightly downward trajectory. However, the sector maintained its ability to meet its financial obligations when compared with the financial risks acquired. The industry's investment assets portfolio was fairly stable and large.

For the non-life sector, capital showed a minimal increase. The asset quality was maintained while the industry's risk retention has been showing a decline, indicating lower risks in relation to potential future claims.

PENSIONS REVIEW

At end-September 2024, pension funds accounted for 5.29 percent of the total financial sector assets and approximately 24.83 percent of non-bank financial institutions assets, reflecting its influence as an institutional investor.

Total private occupational pension plan assets decreased by 0.68 percent (G$796 million) to G$115.9 billion due to a decline in minuscule the value of investments. Pension funds' vulnerability to market risk was moderate and stable. However, DC pension funds continued to be largely exposed to insurance companies having investments deposit in administration contracts.

Nonetheless, the sector has been robust throughout the period with average asset growth outpacing the average growth of pension fund liabilities with an estimated solvency level of 179.6 percent. Real net returns on investments of pension fund assets increased from -4.97 percent in June 2024 to 2.63 percent in September 2024. There was a slight increase in investment returns emanating from equities. Overall, less than favourable investment returns continued to be a going concern, hence, market rates continued to be monitored. Diversification continues to be promoted and the new Private Pensions Act seeks to address the limited investment opportunities locally.

MONETARY POLICY

Bank of Guyana's monetary policy continued to focus on the attainment of price stability while ensuring an adequate level of liquidity to provide for private sector credit and economic growth. The Bank seeks to allow the expansion of broad money along a path consistent with projections for output and inflation. Thus, weekly targets for broad money are translated into targets for base money using the money multiplier. To achieve these weekly base money targets, the Bank focuses on the effective management of excess liquidity in the financial system through its Open Market Operations (OMOs). The Bank also intervenes in the foreign exchange market to achieve its primary objective.

Reserve money increased by 26.3 percent to G$476,520.3 million on account of a 28.1 percent and 25.2 percent increases in liabilities to commercial banks and currency in circulation, respectively, compared to the corresponding period last year. Moreover, during the review period, treasury bills issued and redeemed for monetary purposes valued G$2,991.9 million each, under the 91-days structure. Treasury bills were issued when reserve money exceeded the targeted levels and was deemed likely to adversely affect the economy.

The recording of securities ownership in electronic form also enables efficient usage of these securities as collateral for liquidity support in the G-RTGS system and also for repo and other Open Market Operations (OMO) of the BOG. This system was launched on March 31, 2021, interlinked with the G-RTGS system.

Automated Clearing House -Guyana Electronic Funds Transfer (G-EFT Sub-System)

THE GLOBAL ECONOMY

The global economy presented a mix of stable, yet modest growth and persistent uncertainties across regions. Worldwide growth is expected to subdue at 3.2 percent in 2024, from 3.3 percent in the previous year (World Economic Outlook, October 2024). Moreover, global inflation trends are expected to ease to 5.8 percent in 2024, allowing some central banks to potentially shift to less restrictive monetary policies.

Advanced economies continue to face headwinds such as high public debt and tight conditions restraining monetary spending and dampening government prospects for a stronger economic rebound. In emerging and developing economies, geopolitical tensions, climate challenges and economic disparities continue to shape economic performance, though there is cautious optimism around easing of inflation pressures in some regions.

Advanced Economies

The growth outlook for advanced economies in 2024 remains moderate. According to the IMF's most recent World Economic Outlook, growth in advanced economies is expected to reach 1.8 percent in 2024. Growth in the US is projected to mildly decline to 2.8 percent in 2024 from 2.9 percent in 2023, on account of a decline in non-residential investment despite stronger outturns in consumption. In the Euro Area, growth is estimated to modestly increase to 0.8 percent from 0.4 percent in 2023 as a result of stronger domestic demand and better export performance, particularly in goods. Growth in the United Kingdom is projected to increase to 1.1 percent in 2024 from 0.3 percent in 2023, as falling inflation and interest rates stimulate domestic demand. In Canada, growth is forecasted to increase to 1.3 percent from 1.2 percent in 2023. This was driven primarily by increase in aggregate demand and investment. On the contrary, Japan's growth is forecasted to decline from 1.7 percent to 0.3 percent in 2024, with the downward adjustment largely reflecting temporary supply disruptions and fading on factors that boosted activity in the previous year such as the surge in tourism.

Disinflation is especially pronounced for advanced economies where it is forecasted to fall to 2.6 percent in 2024, down from 4.6 percent in 2023. This is mostly attributed to easing supply chain issues, stabilizing energy prices and a moderation in demand, despite continued challenges with services inflation, which has proven to be more persistent than goods inflation. The Euro Area is expected to see a fall in inflation in 2024 to 2.3 percent, while the inflation rate in the United States is expected to remain above the Federal Reserve's target of 2.0 percent, stabilizing around 3.4 percent due to persistent service sector inflation. In Canada, the inflation rate is forecasted at 2.5 percent, while in the UK, inflation is estimated at 3.0 percent reflecting the gradual effects of monetary tightening improving and economic conditions. Japan's inflation remains moderate and is expected to hover around 2.4 percent, primarily due to the central bank's ongoing monetary policy measures.

During the third quarter of 2024, the US Federal Reserve implemented its first easing monetary policy measure after four years by lowering the federal funds target range by 50 bps following moderate inflation and cooling labour markets in the US economy. The federal funds target range now stands at 4.75 percent — 5.0 percent at end-September 2024. The Bank of England and the Bank of Canada both implemented 25 bps rate cuts during the quarter. This was the first rate cut by the Bank of England after continuous rate hikes for more than two years. The Canadian and British Central Banks' policy rates at the end of the third quarter stood at 4.25 percent and 5.0 percent respectively. The European Central Bank on the other hand approved a bigger cut in their policy rate of 60 bps, closing the third quarter at 3.65 percent.

Unemployment in the advanced economies is expected to remain relatively low and stable in 2024. In the USA, unemployment rate is forecasted to hover around 4.4 percent, reflecting a steady labour market. Unemployment in Canada is estimated to remain steady at 5.0 percent, while the UK's unemployment is forecasted to remain around 4.5 percent, supported by continued labour demand. In the Euro Area, the unemployment rate is expected to be about 6.8 percent, with improvements driven by resilient job markets in some member states, while in Japan, it is projected to be low, at approximately 2.5 percent, benefiting from a tight labour market.

Emerging Market and Developing Economies

Emerging and developing economies have experienced mixed growth outcomes, reflecting resilience despite facing significant challenges. Overall, GDP growth in EMDEs is expected to remain stronger than in advanced economies, with forecasts for 2024 averaging around 4.2 percent, driven by robust domestic demand, industrial output, and improved trade conditions.

Growth in emerging and developing Asia is expected to subside from 5.7 percent in 2023 to 5.3 percent in 2024. This largely reflects a sustained slowdown in the region's two largest countries. In India, growth is expected to moderate from 8.2 percent in 2023 to 7.0 percent in 2024. China's slowdown is projected from 5.2 percent in 2023 to 4.8 percent in 2024. This is due to persistent weakness in the real estate sector and low consumer confidence.

The emerging and developing Europe region is forecasted to marginally decline to 3.2 percent in 2024 from 3.3 percent last year. Growth in Russia is expected to remain steady at 3.6 percent reflecting a slowdown in private consumption and investment, amid reduced tightness in the labour market.

In Latin America and the Caribbean, growth is forecasted to decline from 2.2 percent in 2023 to 2.1 percent in 2024. In Brazil, growth is projected at 3.0 percent in 2024, owing to private consumption stronger investment in the first half of the year from a tight labour market, government transfers, and smaller-than-anticipated disruptions from floods. In Mexico, growth is projected at 1.5 percent in 2024 from 3.2 percent in reflecting weakening domestic 2023, demand on the back of monetary policy tightening.

Growth in the Middle East and Central Asia is projected to pick up from 2.1 percent in 2023 to 2.4 percent in 2024, as the effect on the region from temporary disruptions to oil production and shipping are assumed to fade away. Growth in Saudi Arabia is expected to be modest at 1.5 percent in 2024 due to the impacts of oil production cuts while the forecast for Sudan is approximately -15.1 percent, affected by the ongoing civil conflict that erupted in April 2023 resulting in disrupted economic activities, mass displacement and extensive infrastructure damage.

In Sub-Saharan Africa, growth is projected to remain stable at 3.6 percent as recovery in investment and consumer spending support economic activity. Growth in Nigeria is projected to remain modest at 2.9 percent in 2024 as structural reforms are implemented and recovery is made from recent macroeconomic challenges. In South Africa, growth is expected to increase from 0.7 percent in 2023 to 1.1 percent in 2024 despite persistent issues in the energy and logistics sectors.

Inflation in emerging and developing markets is estimated at 7.9 percent, a decline from the 8.1 percent recorded in 2023, primarily driven by tighter monetary policies by central banks. Brazil's inflation rate is projected at 4.3 percent in 2024, while in Mexico it is estimated at 4.5 percent. China's inflation is forecasted at 0.9 percent while India's is expected at 5.0 percent. In Russia, inflation is expected to increase to 8.5 percent, while in Ukraine, inflation lingers at 9.7 percent.

In Brazil, the unemployment rate is forecasted at 8.0 percent, while Mexico is expected to remain relatively low at 2.4 percent. India estimates a rate of 7.8 percent facing challenges in job creation to match its rapidly growing workforce and Russia, a record low of 4.5 percent, showing stability despite economic sanctions and geopolitical pressures. An unemployment rate of 5.1 percent is projected for China, as economic policy adjustments and slower global demand affect job markets.

Caribbean Economies

The GDP of the Caribbean region is expected to grow by 11.9 percent in 2024 (including Guyana), an uptick from 7.5 percent in 2023. Guyana is expected to experience the highest growth in the region with 42.3 percent owing mainly to growing output in its oil and gas industry. Suriname, Trinidad and Tobago and Jamaica are forecasted to experience GDP growth of 3.0 percent, 1.6 percent and 1.3 percent respectively in 2024. Belize, Barbados and The Bahamas are also expected to grow by 5.4 percent, 3.9 percent and 1.9 percent respectively based on improvements in the tourism. manufacturing and agriculture sectors. On the contrary, Haiti's growth is forecasted to decline by 4.0 percent on account of its recurring political and civil unrest.

Inflation rates in the region generally declined with Jamaica expected to record an inflation rate of 5.3 percent while for Guyana it is estimated at 3.2 percent. Barbados and Trinidad are forecasted to experience rates of 3.0 percent and 1.8 percent respectively. On the contrary, Suriname and Haiti inflation rates remain elevated at 12.7 percent and 29.0 percent respectively.

Barbados, Belize and the ECCU continued to maintain fixed exchange rates with the US dollar of Bds$2, BZ$2 and EC$2.7 respectively. The Bank of Guyana exchange rate remained unchanged at GY$208.5 for US$1. The Trinidad & Tobago dollar depreciated slightly against the US dollar and ended the quarter at TT$6.76 while the Jamaican dollar also depreciated to J$157.77 for US$1 from the previous year.

Commodity Prices

During the third quarter of 2024, commodity prices experienced various fluctuations, largely due to geopolitical factors, weather conditions, and supply-demand dynamics. Oil prices saw significant volatility. Prices initially rose due to geopolitical tensions and OPEC+ production cuts but remained highly sensitive to supply conditions and global Agricultural prices were demand shifts. relatively stable, supported by improved supply conditions, though there were ongoing risks due to climate-related issues and export restrictions, such as India's rice export ban. Prices for metals and minerals generally trended lower due to weak demand from construction and heavy industries, particularly in China. However, demand for minerals used in renewable energy technologies and electric vehicles, showed resilience, maintaining some support for these markets despite broader declines.

Crude Oil Prices

After opening the quarter at $86.41/bbl. oil prices briefly peaked in early July at $87.95/bbl. before trending downwards towards the end of the month. This downward trend was mainly influenced by potential ceasefire negotiations in Gaza and weaker demand from top crude importer – China despite falling US crude inventories.

This trend continued in August and September as bearish news from the United States, continued to adversely weigh on crude prices. Oil prices reached its lowest value for the quarter at $68.68/bbl. in mid-September as rising global oil supply, weaker-than-expected demand, concerns about the economies of China and the United States emerged as headwinds to prices despite OPEC+'s decision to delay a planned output increase. However, oil prices rebounded somewhat towards the end of the quarter amid the Middle East conflict, exacerbated by Iran and Israel, which has been the biggest bullish catalyst that has halted the oil selloff. To close the quarter, oil was traded at $72.50/bbl.

Gold Prices

Gold prices opened the third quarter at US$2,326.75 per ounce and soon after reached its lowest value at $2,318.61 per ounce. Throughout July, the safe haven asset trended upwards when tamer US inflation data supported a "sooner rather than later" rate cut by the Federal Reserve. Before rallying for the remainder of the quarter, gold briefly retreated in late July due to emerging global demand concerns. Gold prices peaked in late September at $2,685.58 per ounce mainly driven by a lower US dollar index coupled with lower interest rates as major global central banks, including the US Federal Reserve, either continued to or started implementing easing monetary policy measures. Gold prices ended the quarter at $2,634.58 per ounce.

3. OUTLOOK FOR 2024

Global growth is projected to slow to 3.2 percent for 2024 from the 3.3 percent recorded at end- 2023. The 2024 outlook suggests a need for coordinated international efforts to address income inequality, support sustainable development, and ensure that recovery benefits are widely shared across populations. Moreover, efforts to recalibrate global policies toward equitable growth, sustainable investment, and resilience in supply chains will be critical in shaping a more balanced and inclusive economic future for 2024 and beyond.

The Guyanese economy is expected to record positive real GDP growth of 42.3 percent at the end of the year, largely driven by higher oil output, coupled with continued favourable performances in all of the other major non-oil sectors. The end of year inflation is forecasted to be 3.2 percent. Appropriate monetary policy as well as fiscal policies will continue to focus on containing prices.

The overall balance of payments is expected to record a surplus at the end of 2024, due to a current account surplus inclusive of oil. The current account is expected to benefit from higher oil export earnings, however, non-oil export earnings is expected to grow marginally. The capital account will record a deficit resulting from the outflow of oil revenue to the Natural Resource Fund and oil cost recovery (withdrawal of equity) by the oil and gas sector despite higher inflows of foreign direct investments.

The volume of foreign exchange transactions is expected to expand ending-December, 2024 as the rise in oil-related activities in the economy continues. The exchange rate of the Guyana dollar to the US dollar is anticipated to remain relatively stable with adequate supply of foreign exchange in the market.

Central government's overall financial position is forecasted to record a wider deficit mainly on account of increased capital and current expenditure budgetary sizes, due to the forecasted execution of significant development projects as well as increased employment costs and transfer payments. The NFPEs are projected to record an overall deficit due to total expenditure outweighing total revenues at end-December 2024.

The monetary aggregates of reserve money and broad money are estimated to expand in 2024, with the former primarily on account of increased net foreign assets of the Bank of Guyana while the latter is expected to stem from higher net foreign assets and private sector credit, in particular the services sector, as the economy continues to benefit from the oil and gas and support services sector. Interest rates are expected to remain relatively stable in 2024 reflective of the adequate level of liquidity within the banking system.

The balances in this table exclude inter-bank loans, real estate mortgage loans, local securities and other credit instruments. It should be noted that gross indebtedness of the sugar and rice industry can be obtained by adding the balances of sugar cane and sugar and molasses manufacturing of sugar, and paddy and rice milling for rice respectively. Figures under the 'other purposes' sub-category has been reclassified to exclude credit card transactions effective from March 2007. Due to a reclassification by two Commercial Banks, figures under the Private Sector have been revised from January 2012 to March 2013. See note under Loans to Non-Residents for Table 2.1 (a) above. See note under Private Sector for Table 2.1(a) above.

TABLE 2.14: Commercial Banks: Liquid Assets

The liquid assets comprise Bank of Guyana notes and coins, foreign currency held by banks, (special interest earning) deposits held at the Bank of Guyana (BOG), balances due from other Commercial Banks - both local and foreign, Government of Guyana Treasury Bills. The special reserves deposits (SRDs) established in 1969, discontinued in 1994 as the Bank of Guyana sought to develop its capacity to manage the excess reserves of the bank more effectively. Approximately, 75-80 per cent of the SRDs were absorbed through a sale of three year, variable rate, and fixed date debenture to the Commercial Banks.

Prior to March 1989, the legally required level of liquid assets to be held by the Commercial Banks against their deposit liabilities was calculated as the sum of 20 percent of demand liabilities and 15 percent of time liabilities. During the period March 31, 1989 to May 15, 1991 the determination of the required liquid assets held by the banks was based on actual holdings on specified dates. Accordingly, from March 31, 1989 to June 30, 1990 required liquid assets were stipulated as the actual holdings on March 15, 1989. Between July 30, 1990 and February 19, 1991 the required liquid assets was based on the assets held by the banks on September 30, 1989. Further, between February 20, 1991 and May 14, 1991 the required balances were set as at the end of July 30, 1990.

With effect from May 15, 1991, however, the basis for calculating required liquid assets was changed to 25 percent of demand liabilities and 20 percent of time liabilities. Further, amendments to the liquid asset requirements became effective on 26th, October 1998. The liquid assets base period has been redefined as the Monday to Friday workweek immediately preceding the liquid asset maintenance period. The liquid asset requirement is determined by applying the prescribed percentages to the weekly average of the daily liabilities balances at the close of business of each of the five days of the liquid asset base period. Figures for Treasury Bills were reclassified from December 2000 to December 2002.

The Liquid Assets Ratio was temporarily amended to 20 percent of demand liabilities and 15 percent of time liabilities with effect from August 24, 2020 to August 31, 2022 in keeping with the agreement between the Bank of Guyana and the Commercial Banks in relation to COVID-19 supplementary relief measures.

TABLE 2.15: Commercial Banks: Minimum Reserve Requirements

Prior to May 16, 1991, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were calculated as 6 percent of demand liabilities and 4 percent of time liabilities. Their percentages were changed with effect from May 16, 1991, to 11 percent of demand liabilities and 9 percent of time liabilities. Commencing April 7, 1994, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were again revised to the sum of 16 percent of demand liabilities and 14 percent of time liabilities.

On June 29, 1998, in addition to Commercial Banks, other licensed Financial Institutions were required to maintain balances with the Central Bank against their deposits and other liabilities. Further, the required reserve period has been changed on Monday to Friday workweek instead of the Wednesday to Thursday week used previously. The required reserve period has been referred to as the reserve base period. The week following the current reserve base period, i.e. the reserve maintenance period is also based on the Monday to Friday workweek. The deposits and other liabilities to which the required reserve ratio(s) are applied are referred to as the reserve base. During the reserve maintenance period, all licensed Financial Institutions subject to reserve requirement are required to maintain reserves against the relevant deposit and other liabilities.

Effective February 1, 1999, the required reserve ratio applicable to all liabilities of licensed Financial Institutions was lowered to twelve per cent (12 %). The first reserve base period for which the revised requirements became relevant was the 1st to 5th February 1999 while the reserve maintenance period was the 8th to 12th February 1999. However, reserve balances for the Non-Bank licensed Financial Institutions are excluded from table 2.15.

The Reserve Requirement Ratio was temporarily amended to 10 percent with effect from August 24, 2020 to August 31, 2022 in keeping with the agreement between the Bank of Guyana and the Commercial Banks in relation to COVID-19 supplementary relief measures.
